SALESMAN, SUPPOSE

you knew something about office specialty salesmanship, and yet regarded yourself as more advertising man than salesman; and suppose New York City had more waiting business than two men can now handle, so that two more men will be let in on it May 1st; and suppose it didn't matter how young you were, then you would be the man out if you were over 35; and suppose the appliance you would sell were already in demand, an accepted though revolutionary device, in successful continuous use by the foremost business concerns; and suppose it were to be consistently and strongly advertised; and suppose you only had to do one-half as well as the writer in order to make commissions of $100 a week—and the better you do the better I shall be pleased—would you write and give a line on your belief in yourself before I ask you to sell? I can then tell in three minutes whether you can qualify as one of the two men. H 88 Times.

SALESMEN!

One of our customers said to us the other day:

"When I applied for position as salesman with our company, I had never had any selling experience. I had been a bookkeeper in an architect's office at a salary of $25 per week. I was discouraged by the manager that I could sell under your system. I outlined my position as draftsman and became a salesman. I received a commission check the very first week's work amounting to $30. The second week my commission check was in excess of $100, and in three months to a day from the date of my employment I was promoted to manager of one of the company's offices. My first week's check as manager was $250."

Have you the vision to see opportunity in such a connection? If so, write for interview. We are one of the largest security selling concerns in America. J 600 Times Downtown.

SALESMEN.—A genuine opportunity awaits three men who are possessed of foresight and vision; we will open and equip three offices in New England, authorize employment of salesmen under your supervision, give you unstinted co-operation in the sale of stock in Trust Company, member of Federal Reserve Bank, and correspondent of large New York, Chicago, and St. Paul national banks, on strictly commission basis; this is no exploded idea of "financial service," but a first-class sales proposition for men with brains and inclination to work; if you are not prepared to sever present business connections, do not waste our time; all communications confidential. C 656 Times Downtown.

SALESMEN.—A financial sales organization is seeking men of high calibre as salesmen and salesmanagers; we have what we believe the highest type of investment offered to the people, the security of a financial company where promotion stock has been eliminated, organized on the sound principles of banks and insurance companies; we pay liberal commissions and this should appeal to the salesmen in New York and vicinity; the reconstruction period requires much capital to take care of our industry and this company was organized to meet the demand; your application will be treated strictly confidential. Write Box K 668 Times Downtown.

Salesmen and Salesmanagers

Men of ability and integrity who are proven producers are invited to consider with us several interesting opportunities to join our staff.

There are undoubtedly several high-grade men who are stunted as to the future, working without the right kind of backing and co-operation, or perhaps upon the fag end of some developer's holdings, who would like to talk the situation over with us.

We prefer men familiar with Westchester County, young men, men whose records are clean and show continuous service with but few employers.

Our position is that of having a greater demand than we can care for. Our forces must be enlarged at once, and it will aid us to give you immediate consideration if you will arrange to have a mail application reach our General Sales Manager early on Monday morning.

Grouselands

A Modern Estate at Dorville, Vermont, in the heart of the health-giving hills 2000 ft. above the sea.

FOR RENT OR FOR SALE

From its windows, 100 miles of mountain scenery—the Percy Peaks, Mount Kilkenny, Willey and Franconia Ranges and Mount Lafayette are visible. Convenient to N. Y.

The estate house has stood in its present setting of lofty maples, cherry and elm for more than a century. It is of the old Colonial type, with wide doors, fine old fireplaces, panelled walls and paneled doors. Five fireplaces, hot and cold water and steam heat throughout. It is especially well-built and in excellent condition. Detached fireproof garage, shop and outbuildings. Pure water in plentiful supply. All farm tools and implements go with the property. 200 acres of land, 100 acres tillable, balance of pasture.

A 9-hole golf course and a tennis court are within a few minutes' walk. Boating, bathing, fishing and shooting in the neighborhood. Good roads everywhere about. Three miles bring you to the auto thoroughfare between White and Green Mountains. The air is wild and dry; hay fever, asthma, and throat and lung ailments are unknown. St. Johnsbury, nine miles away, offers opportunity to the requirements of the city-bred, while grocery supplies are always at hand. Rural mail delivery and telephone keep you in touch with affairs. Daily Express trains speed you back and forth.

HIGH RENT INQUIRY SHOULD COVER CITY

County Clerk Schneider Wants Police to Make House-to-House Canvass.

PUTS BLAME ON FINANCIERS

A statement by County Clerk Schneider, which appeared on this page two weeks ago, called attention to the fact that the tax rate had been decreased four points while rents had advanced from 10 to 50 per cent. He suggested that a canvass be made by the police and a list prepared showing every building which was producing a greater income and that this list be turned over to the Department of Taxes, so that the assessment on the advanced values might be increased in proportion. In this way, Mr. Schneider said, all of the people would benefit by the greater realty values.

Out of this suggestion grew the appointment by the Mayor of the present committee to investigate the increase in rents, and yesterday Mr. Schneider said:

"As I feel largely responsible for the present inquiry into high rents, I would like to see it attended with success. The committee is receiving complaints from some of those whose rents have been increased beyond reason, and by this method something will be discovered concerning the matter, but there will remain much that will never come to light. Anyway, the present method will not be useful as a guide in increasing assessments.

"Therefore I am still of the opinion that the proper way to go to work is by having a house-to-house canvass made by the police. This would produce information that would enable the committee to carry on its inquiry with more efficiency."

Mr. Schneider referred to the recent increase of $100 a year in the salaries of the city and county employes whose pay was less than $1,800 a year. A canvass among his own subordinates revealed the fact that thirty-one of them had their rent increased an average of $17 a month, or twice as much as the increase in salaries. One of the employes had his rent increased $20 and another unfortunte will be compelled to pay an additional $30 a month after May 1.

It was pointed out that no man should pay more than 25 per cent. of his salary for rent, but that this was impossible in the cases of men receiving only $25 a week. In the public employ there are many who receive no more.

"One of my employes," said Mr. Schneider, "had his rent increased from $29 to $34 on Jan. 1 and on May 1 it is to be increased again to $42. This employe receives only $1,300 a year. He is helpless. He would move, only there is no place to move to. He must pay in order to keep a roof over his family. It was the idea of the Board of Estimate, when the $100 increase was allowed the public employes, that it would cover the increase in rent, food, clothing, and all of the other living necessities. But the rent alone eats it up.

"Unfortunately for this class of labor, there is no labor union to protect them, so they cannot hope to gain what they are entitled to by a strike. Even a strike is sometimes unsuccessful. Only 8 per cent. of the labor in the United States belongs to labor unions, and the other 92 per cent. is without protection. Government statistics show that the cost of living has increased 65 per cent.

"The lack of housing accommodations is largely due, in my opinion, to the fact that the big financial institutions refuse to lend money for building purposes, because many of them were obliged to take over by foreclosure many houses on which they had lent money, and they are now seeking to make money out of the matter by getting large prices for these properties through the great need of the people. Many builders would erect apartment houses if they could get money for this purpose, but they cannot except at rates or on conditions that are practically prohibitive.

"Three months ago I advocated the election of a Board of Estimate which would have control only of the finances of the city and which would have sufficient power to meet conditions like the present. Such a board could meet every day and devote its entire attention to the needs of the whole city. The board, as it is now constituted, has more work than it can properly attend to, and such criticism as was recently directed at the Borough Presidents by the Citizens Union, because of their failure to attend the meetings of the board, was unjust. The Presidents have frequently more work than they can look after. They are elected to represent their boroughs and their chief interest naturally lies within the borders of their boroughs."

Mr. Schneider hazarded the opinion that in the future there would be fewer marriages. He was sure that a study of the work of the Marriage License Bureau would prove the correctness of this opinion. He said that the average number of licenses issued by the bureau before the war was from 28,000 to 32,000 a year, that during the war the number jumped to 60,000, but that during the current year not more than 25,000 would be issued. He explained this by saying that men and women will not care to marry if they have to face, with the other burdens matrimony brings, the difficulty of getting a home at fair rents.

NEW CANDY FACTORIES.

Over $4,000,000 to Be Expended in Metropolitan District.

Anticipating that there will be a marked increase in the demand for candy in its many forms as a result of the prohibition amendment, several of the leading candy manufacturers in the metropolitan district have already perfected plans for increasing their output in the future.

A number of new factories specially designed and equipped for the manufacture of candy are proposed for an early start in Greater New York.

In Manhattan, Brooklyn, and Queens locations for these projects have been selected and, in three instances, general contracts have already been awarded for the construction of buildings. Plans for the remaining contemplated operations are now being prepared, and estimates will be considered within a short time. In all, approximately $4,000,000 will be expended during the coming months for construction designed to increase candy production, according to The Record and Guide.

In Manhattan, D. Auerbach & Sons, candy manufacturers, have awarded a general contract, without competition, to Marc Eidlitz & Son, 30 East Forty-second Street, for an eleven-story addition to their plant at Eleventh Avenue and Forty-sixth Street. The addition will have ground dimensions of 100 by 200 feet, and when completed the structure will provide in the neighborhood of 200,000 square feet of manufacturing space. The cost of construction is estimated to be upward of $500,000.

Three important building operations, planned for the manufacture of candy and chewing gum, are scheduled for erection in Long Island City. The American Chicle Company is having plans and specifications prepared by Ballinger & Perrot, architects and engineers, for an immense factory building that will cost more than $2,000,000.

Loft, Inc., candy manufacturers, have awarded a general contract to John H. Carl, 510 First Avenue, Manhattan, for a five-story brick and concrete factory addition, 155 by 200 feet, to occupy the block front on Vernon Avenue, from Dayton to Hamilton Street, Long Island City. Building operations for Loft, Inc., will also include the erection of a large garage in Long Island City, to house the delivery trucks of the company. Altogether it is estimated that this single concern will expend upward of $500,000 in extending its manufacturing and service facilities.

Repetti, Inc., makers of caramels, have completed negotiations with Louis Gold of Brooklyn for the construction of a large factory building especially designed for their needs, to be erected on the north side of Nott Avenue, 90 feet east of the Boulevard, in Long Island City. The plans call for a brick and reinforced concrete structure, four stories in height and approximately 90 by 200 feet. This operation will require an expenditure of about $350,000 for construction, exclusive of machinery and equipment.

In Brooklyn two important candy factories are being planned, and it is expected that actual work of construction will be started at an early date. The Pirika Chocolate Company has acquired additional property in Dean Street, near Carlton Avenue, and has commissioned Timmis & Chapman, architects and engineers, to prepare the plans for the new factory to be erected on this site. The building will be a three-story structure, of reinforced concrete construction, 78 by 120 feet. The cost is estimated to be approximately $125,000.

At the northeast corner of Wyckoff and Willoughby Avenues, Brooklyn, on a plot 84 by 200 feet, the Diana Chocolate Company of 382 Jefferson Street proposes to erect a modern factory. The plans and specifications call for a structure five stories in height, built of brick and reinforced concrete, to cost $100,000.

Teams for Loan Drive.

The Real Estate Board, which has been asked to secure $5,000,000 in subscriptions in the Victory Loan drive, announces the formation of twenty-six teams of from five to twenty members which will canvass the city in an effort to have every real estate owner subscribe according to the value of his property on the tax list.

The team captains and their districts are as follows: John N. Golding, Battery to Fulton Street, east of Broadway; H. S. Kirby, Battery to Fulton Street, west of Broadway; J. Zinoboy, Fulton to Canal Street, east of Broadway; Thomas Raywood, Fulton to Canal Street, west of Broadway; Frederick Fox, Benjamin N. Strauss, Canal to Fourteenth Street, east of Broadway; Aaron Rabinowitz, Canal to Fourteenth Street, west of Broadway; Henry R. Dwight, Fourteenth to Thirty-fourth Street, east of Broadway; John W. Hahner (M. & L. Hess Company) and W. J. Stone, (S. H. King,) Fourteenth to Thirty-fourth Street, west of Broadway; William S. Skadder, (George R. Read Company,) Thirty-fourth to Forty-second Street, east of Broadway; M. Rosenthal, Thirty-fourth to Forty-second Street, west of Broadway; Lawrence B. Elliman, Forty-second to Fifty-ninth Street, east of Fifth Avenue; John P. Kerwin, Forty-second Street to Fifty-ninth Street, west of Fifth Avenue; A. S. Ashforth and C. Merritt Ives, Fifty-ninth to 110th Street, east of Fifth Avenue; Charles S. Lyons, Fifty-ninth to 110th Street, west of Eighth Avenue; W. H. Dolson, 110th to 157th Street, west of Eighth Avenue; George W. Short, 110th Street to Harlem River, east of Eighth Avenue; T. Ward Wasson, 157th to 190th Street, Harlem to North River; Max Just, 190th Street to Ship Canal and Marble Hill to Kingsbridge; Moffatt & Schwab, Staten Island; William P. Rae, Brooklyn; Clement H. Smith, Bronx; Ira L. Terry, Flushing; Alfred Eno, Jamaica; E. A. Macdougall, Long Island City; Lewis H. May, Rockaways.

SAYS PENDING BILLS HURT REALTY MART

I. M. Levy Declares One Client Has Postponed Improvements Pending Legislation.

SAYS EFFECT UNFORTUNATE

Real Estate, He Insists, Has Not Increased in Proportion to Other Articles.

The agitation for the passage of restraining and oppressive laws affecting real estate is already having an unfortunate effect upon the realty market, according to Isadore Montefiore Levy, attorney. In discussing the proposed legislation Mr. Levy said:

"One client, who was on the point of purchasing and improving several residential buildings, abandoned the project. The thought that, after he put his money into this proposition, his investment would be legislated against influenced him against the enterprise. He argued: 'Why go into a real estate proposition facing such a possibility, when I can buy stocks, bonds, or any other commodity without being threatened in that way?'

"If real estate is going to be controlled by legislation, then we should consistently, in peace times, control the product and price of every commodity. We refuse to profit by the experience of other countries. Take England, for instance. When they passed the Land Valuation act regulating land valuations its effect was to stop all building and discourage investments of every kind in real estate. The result has been that there is greater famine than ever of houses in England. The law of supply and demand was artificially regulated by the Government with the consequence of making conditions worse than before.

"Food, material, and labor have increased from 50 to 100 per cent. This has proportionally decreased the value of the dollar. If real estate had increased proportionally to the decrease of the dollar, real estate values would have increased fully 50 per cent. This has not occurred, showing that real estate has not kept pace with the increase of all other articles of life. In discussing this subject, we must remember that the landlord must make a living from his real estate, just as other merchants do from the sale of their merchandise, and he should be considered accordingly.

"If the State really desires to aid tenants, a practical way of doing that would be for the State to make an appropriation with which to improve the thousands of old tenement house buildings located in various sections of this city. These at the present time have many vacant apartments caused by the fact that these buildings do not possess modern improvements, which the landlords are not in a financial position to install.

"For instance, on the lower and upper east side, there are vacant rooms which will accommodate 100,000 people. If these rooms were made available for proper living accommodations it would go a great way toward solving housing facilities in this city. In most cases all that would be necessary would be for the Government to make an appropriation for each building sufficient to install hot water, steam heat, bathtubs, and proper plumbing in each house. These improvements, together with the proper painting of each house, would transform these houses into most desirable living quarters.

"If the State was not in a position to make an outright appropriation, it could arrange to lend a sufficient amount of money to the owners of these houses for the purpose of making these improvements. On this money there should be paid 5 per cent. interest and the principal sum repaid in a stipulated period of years.

"A commission could be appointed to supervise the expenditure and the appropriation of this money. An initial appropriation of $1,000,000 could be made for this purpose. If this experiment was a success, as I believe it assuredly would be, the landlords would speedily make the improvements at their own expense, without any help from the Government. I believe that with a total expenditure of about $5,000,000, not only would the tenancy problem be substantially solved, but in addition we would be able to eliminate the present obnoxious housing conditions in the poorer sections of the city."

British Restrictions on Rent.

The bill to extend the Increase of Rent and Mortgage Interest (war restrictions) act was issued in March. It prolongs the operation of the existing act for a period of one year from the termination of the war, during which period rents may be increased up to a maximum of 10 per cent., and mortgage interest may be increased by ½ per cent. provided that, with such addition, the total rate payable does not exceed 5 per cent. Tenants must be given four weeks' notice in writing of an increase of rent, and until the expiry of that period no increase will be payable. The provisions as to rent and mortgage interest are extended to houses, or parts of houses, whose ratable value does not exceed (a) in Metropolitan Police district, $365; (b) in Scotland, $234; (c) in other parts of the United Kingdom, $204. Any increase of rent or interest beyond the prescribed amounts imposed after March 4 will be irrecoverable, agreement to the contrary notwithstanding.

County courts can authorise a larger increase in rent than 10 per cent. in cases where (a) the standard rent is lower than that of similar houses in the locality, (b) the taking in of boarders has increased wear-and-tear, or (c) the house is sublet. Also the court may prohibit or reduce the increase of rent if the standard rent is higher than that ruling for the same accommodation in the district. The landlord is bound, under penalty, to furnish, at the request of the tenant, a statement as to what is the standard rent of the house. If the owner of a house purchased after Sept. 30, 1917, requires it for his own occupation or that of some person in his employ or in the employ of some tenant from him, the court may make an order, but only after considering all the circumstances, "including the alternative accommodation available." Finally, neither the principal act nor the new act applies to houses in the course of erection or built after the passing of the act.—The Economist, London, England, March, 1919.

New Fifth Avenue Chairman.

John H. Towne, for more than seventeen years Secretary of the Yale & Towne Manufacturing Company, has been unanimously elected Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Fifth Avenue Association, vice Ansell H. Ball, President of Best & Co., who found it necessary to resign by reason of the encroachments on his time in connection with personal interests. Mr. Ball was subsequently elected Third Vice President, this office having been held by Mr. Towne up to the time of his election as Chairman.

A $200,000 BUILDING ALTERATION

Remodeled Structure for H. Jaeckel & Sons on Northeast Corner of Forty-fifth Street and Fifth Avenue.

The alteration of the building at the northwest corner of Forty-fifth Street and Fifth Avenue for the occupancy of H. Jaeckel & Sons, Inc., furriers, is so extensive as to constitute virtually a reconstruction of the building, the cost of which is estimated to be in the neighborhood of $200,000.

The work is now being carried out from plans and under the supervision of Starrett & Van Vleck, architects, by Wharton Green & Co., Inc., builders.

The building has a frontage in excess of 25 feet on Fifth Avenue, with about 145 feet on Forty-fifth Street, with an "L," approximately 100 feet deep and 55 feet wide in the rear.

New limestone fronts in Italian Renaissance style on both Fifth Avenue and Forty-fifth Street will completely alter the present appearance of what has long been known as the Silo Building. Show windows designed for the special display of furs will be installed in both first and second stories, while carriage and wholesale entrances will be provided on Forty-fifth Street.

QUEENS SUBWAY PROBLEMS

Chamber of Commerce Makes Suggestions to Commission.

The Queens Chamber of Commerce has written to the Public Service Commission relative to the operation of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit trains over the extensions to Astoria and Corona as follows:

"The Queens Borough Chamber of Commerce does not attempt to advance any particular form of solution—gauntlet tracks, sliding station platforms, sliding car platforms, or the removal of the present wooden blocks on the edges of the platform, which would enable both the Interborough Rapid Transit and the Brooklyn Rapid Transit trains to operate at once over the same tracks. (It would be necessary, we believe, to install an additional third rail for the Brooklyn Rapid Transit trains.) The latter method, we understand, would leave a gap of several inches between the Interborough cars and the station platforms, but there would be no gap between the Brooklyn Rapid Transit cars and platforms.

"The records of the commission show that the construction of the subway from Times Square, Manhattan, to Long Island City was over 95 per cent. completed on Feb. 1, and that in addition to the 5 per cent. to be completed the only work necessary is the laying of ties and tracks, the installation of the third rail, and signal equipment.

"We presume this work has been started and that nothing will prevent the early completion and operation of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit trains to Queens Borough, which is one solution of the present congestion in the Queens Borough Subway at Grand Central Station."

At a hearing before the Public Service Commission, held Thursday, on the selection of appropriate designations for the rapid transit routes in Manhattan and the new tunnels extending easterly into Queens and Brooklyn, representatives of the Queens Borough Chamber of Commerce offered as suggestion that the new Brooklyn Rapid Transit tunnel from Sixtieth Street, Manhattan, to Long Island City, be known either as the "Manhattan-Queens Tunnel" or "The Queens Plaza Tunnel." They also offered the suggestion that the Broadway-Fifty-ninth Street line, operated by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit, should be known as the "Kings-Queens-Manhattan Subway."

SUCCESSFUL FARMER.

Remarkable Record for Five Years' Work Made by a Canadian.

That overworked question perpetrated by W. Shakespeare, "What's in a name?" might be said to apply to a story that comes out of Canada. In the northern part of Ontario is a region called the Great Clay Belt. Over here that would stir the mind to register thoughts of brickyards or farm lands that might raise a small mortgage, but not much of anything else. But it seems that such a judgment would be all wrong.

Witness the experience of one John Hardin. Five years ago he was a watchmaker in Montreal, working for $30 a week, not so bad at that. But he wanted something better, so he hiked to the Great Clay Belt, went to farming, and now he owns 640 acres of land, a fine home, a large dairy, horses, sheep, and hogs, and all the other things that go to make the outfit of a successful farmer. Just as a little example of what the change meant to him, it may be said that his wheat crop last year netted him more than he made in all his life as a watchmaker. And he was one of those "city chaps" who knew not a thing about farming when he began.

The secret of his success? Here it is: "I devoted whatever ability I have and all my energy to my farm. I studied farming. I read farm magazines. I informed myself regarding scientific methods of cultivating the soil." In other words he was a "book farmer." And he "brought home the bacon."—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Making of Iridescent Gelatine.

The discovery of a method of making iridescent gelatine is reported by Consul General Robert P. Skinner at London to have been made by a Londoner. By this process, formerly known only in Germany, a pearly effect can be given to otherwise transparent sheets of gelatine.

PREDICTS PRICE CUT.

B. F. Weber Tells Senate Investigators Rates Can Come Down.

B. F. Weber, President of the National Brick Company, testified before the Senate Investigating Committee at Chicago last week that if his plants were running to their capacity next month with prospects of business good the price of common building brick might be cut from $12 to $10 with a fair profit to the manufacturer. He said he was willing to enter into contracts now to give the owners the benefit of any such possible reduction.

Mr. Weber corrected the impression that the brick men profited $5 a thousand on brick made during the war period and sold through the Central Sales Agency. He said he did not know yet what profit had been made, that a $7 book price had been fixed tentatively, and that the Illinois Brick Company, which pooled all business during this period and manufactured for all concerns, had not made a report of cost.

Charles A. Shank, traffic manager of the National Company, said he thought the committee was "picking on the brick men."

"Give us a chance," he said. "The builders are holding back because they want to make more profits. We have had to consent to reduction in our own salaries."

Senator Turnbaugh said the committee had found common brick had increased 72 per cent., while other materials had only increased 30 to 35 per cent.

"You are ignoring the $9 price which was set after we began losing money in 1917," said the witness. "That makes a 33 1-3 per cent. increase."

Senator Kessinger said he had talked with the American Radiator people and they had told him of 35 per cent. reductions in order to get business.

"Why cannot the brick men reduce in order to get business?" he asked.

"Because the materials which the radiator company uses have been reduced by the Government," said the witness. "They increased prices 300 per cent. They can well afford to lower 35 per cent. now, when steel has gone down."

Urges Federal Aid.

The United Real Estate Owners' Association, Stewart Browne, President, offers the following remedies for the present housing crisis:

1. Federal urban mortgage bank system, something similar to the Federal Land Bank system, which has made $300,000,000 in loans in two years.

2. Limit the realty tax rate to 2 per cent. and raise additional revenue from other sources than realty.

3. Prohibit the State Legislature from passing mandatory financial legislation affecting the city.

4. Divorce the voting of city moneys from the spendings. Elect the money voters for ten years from among direct taxpayers paying not less than $5,000 per annum, and make the money spenders appointive and not elective.

5. Disenfranchise all State and city tax-eaters.

6. With all or even part of the above will come additional housing construction.

Mr. Browne says: "We are in favor of any and all investigations into rental and housing conditions; but that won't build additional housing. Mortgage money alone will do that. Labor and material won't go down and may go up. No use waiting for that. Over two years ago I predicted the present high rents."

Projected Buildings.

The National Association Building Corporation has filed plans for a twenty-story store and office building at 27 West Forty-third Street and 26 and 28 West Forty-fourth Street, on a plot 141.10 by 200.10 by 50 by 200.10. Starrett & Van Vleck, the architects, estimate the cost at $800,000.

The Lansing Company of Delaware has awarded the contract for the construction of the six-story building projected for 25 and 30 Vandam Street to the York Building Company. H. P. Knowles and L. M. Loeb, architects, filed plans for the building yesterday. The estimated cost is $80,000.

LAWYERS WANT BUILDING.

Demand for Big Office Structure in Lower Manhattan.

To meet the problem of office accommodations in the lower part of Manhattan, lawyers in this city are contemplating the formation of a co-operative association to build or purchase a great building which would be used entirely for law offices. The plan, which is said to have the approval of prominent members of the Bar Association, is outlined by J. Noble Hayes, an attorney.

When interviewed on the subject Mr. Hayes said: "No definite action has been taken as yet, but something must be done to meet the situation, as it is almost impossible to procure a law office in the downtown district at a living rent today, as most lawyers whose leases expire next May have discovered. To discover the remedy it is necessary to consider the cause of this menacing condition. It has come about in this wise: In these modern times the great business buildings which monopolize the office spaces in lower New York have come to be owned by great corporations as a result of the concentration of business activities in a limited centre, and the development of the skyscraper, which is too big a proposition for private ownership.

"Hence we have the available office spaces under the absolute control of a chain of great financial, insurance, and industrial corporations who are engaged in the office renting business, to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars, as an important part of their activities, and probably most of them in excess of their charter rights.

"These corporations, actuated by what their managers have considered sound business principles, have not been slow to appreciate the value of the monopoly which they have secured and, as might be expected, have capitalized it to their mutual advantage, as possibly they have a right to do, and have established a systematised interchange of information respecting available spaces to rent in each of their buildings, rents, and regulations.

"Their agents are frank to inform tenants who seek to renew their leases just what difficulty they will have in getting other accommodations if they are not willing to accept the landlord's terms, whatever they may be, and that some corporation, or highly prosperous or get-rich-quick business concern, stands ready to take the lawyer's office at a much higher rate than the landlord is gracious enough to offer to renew to his old tenant, and the worst of it is that the statement is usually true.

"A lawyers' association having its rooms and library in a large downtown building, as is now well known, has had its rent raised from $6,000 a year to $16,000 a year, and $3,000 a year in addition for electric light. It had to submit and sign a three years' lease or disband temporarily and store its great library, as no other suitable accommodation could be found downtown. Its only alternative was to raise the dues of its members. It would seem, therefore, no exaggeration to say that these great corporate properties hold a rod of terror over the learned heads of our profession.

"What, then, is the remedy? It seems clear enough. It is for the lawyers to own a great lawyers' office building, which should become the virtual home of the active lawyers of the city, similar to the famous Inns of Court of England; not only owned but managed by the lawyers upon some co-operative plan as to office accommodations and rents, and under the supervision and control of a responsible board of managers. Such a building should have a great library, a banquet hall and restaurant, a great typewriting bureau and printing establishment.

"It is believed to be an entirely practicable financial scheme, if approved of and supported by the Bar. One, two or even four blocks could be purchased in undeveloped downtown districts off the main line of traffic at very small cost at the present time and spacious ten-story buildings erected on such a site, with courts and light spaces, and even gardens and fountains. Such a building would be sure of its patronage. An eager clientele awaits its appearance."

LATELY SOLD FOR $405,750

Private Dwellings Being Bought for Investment, Many Being Altered Into Small Apartments.

Martin E. Kern purchased, as an investment, from I. Randolph and Everett Jacobs, operators, the twelve-story apartment house 310 West Eighty-sixth Street, on plot 72 by 100. This is one of the three apartment houses erected by Mulliken & Moeller on Eighty-sixth Street, west of West End Avenue, about three years ago.

The sellers acquired the property recently from the receivers of the Fiss, Doerr & Carroll Company for a consideration of $405,750. They resell it subject to a mortgage of $358,000. The Frank L. Fisher Company negotiated the sale.

Dr. Walter C. Kramp sold the five-story American basement dwelling, 17.2 by 84, to a client of Slawson & Hobbs for occupancy.

Frederick Brown bought the four-story and basement dwelling, 18 by 102.2 with "L" 18 by 36, at 138 East Seventy-ninth Street, from Laura T. Richardson. The deal, which was for all cash, was negotiated by Loton H. Slawson Company.

The Dry Dock Savings Bank sold the four-story high-stoop dwelling, on lot 18 by 102, held at $25,000, at 84 West Eighty-fourth Street, to a client of the Wood, Dolson Company, who will alter the building into small apartments.

The estate of Mary A. Halloran sold the four-story and basement dwelling on plot 20 by 85, at 191 Lenox Avenue, to a client of Shaw & Co., who will alter the premises for stores and apartments.

The private dwelling at 55 West Ninth Street, held at $27,000, was sold to a client of McCotter & Davis for occupancy.

James L. Van Sant purchased from the Lawyers Mortgage Company the five three-story and basement brownstone dwellings, each on lot 15.7 by 100, at 207 to 215 West 123d Street. The houses will be offered for resale. David Lion was the broker.

William J. Roome & Co., Inc., sold for United States Trust Company, as trustee of the Drager estate, the five-story American basement dwelling at 49 East Ninety-second Street, to Harrison Tweed for occupancy.

Sale on Fourth Avenue.

The Samuel I. Hunt estate sold the five-story business building, 27.2 by 116, held at $60,000, at 112 Fourth Avenue, adjoining the southwest corner of Twelfth Street, to the New York Call Printing Company, who will occupy the building with their business. Louis Marks was the broker in the deal, and William H. Buckley, attorney, represented the sellers, while Leon A. Malkiel acted for the purchasers.

Mercer Street Sale.

The Dolland Warehouse Corporation sold the five-story and basement building on lot 25 by 100 at 153 Mercer Street to Anderson & McKenzie through L. Tanenbaum, Strauss & Co.

Pearl Street Sale.

John Dittner sold the five-story buildings, 20 by 83, held at $30,000, at 69 Pearl Street, to Samuel Brody through W. E. Dean.

Marimpol Court Sold.

Marimpol Court, a six-story elevator apartment, 62.6 by 100.11, held at $120,000, at 521 and 523 West 122d Street, was sold to a client of Sydney Hickox by Kurz & Uren, Inc., in conjunction with George Coster.

Tenement Deals.

J. Frank McDavitt sold the five-story flat on plot 25 by 100 at 107 West 129th Street in a cash transaction to an investing client of J. Anthony Minott.

Agnes Lemmy sold the five-story tenement, with stores, held at $15,000, at 224 East 100th Street, to a builder who will make extensive alterations, James J. Donovan, Inc., negotiated the sale.

The Bronx Market.

The Stebbins Realty and Construction Company, Inc., J. Malino, President, sold the property, 50 by 100, renting for $9,000 and held at $60,000, at 1,002 Home Street, to Celia Schlesinger through James J. Donovan, Inc.

Frederick Brown sold the five-story apartment, on plot 72 by 112 by irregular, renting for $12,500, at the southwest corner of Creston Avenue and 182d Street, to Joseph Rudinsky. In exchange the buyer gave the northwest corner of Broome and Norfolk Streets, a five and one-half story building with seven stores, on plot 44 by 78, renting for $9,000. Bernard London was the broker.

Brooklyn.

Mary Curran bought the two-story brick one-family house at 354 Sixth Street through F. C. Sauter.

The vacant plot, 55 by 100, at 17 and 19 Hopkins Avenue and the vacant plot, 120 by 100, at 21 to 29 Hopkins Avenue, have been purchased by Nathan J. Alexander and the Trop Chocolate Company, respectively, from the Realty Associates. The buyers intend to improve the premises with three-story factories.

Alfred M. Nicholson sold the two-story and cellar brick dwelling with garage at 650 Sixty-eighth Street to an investing client of the Bulkley & Horton Company.

M. C. Fink sold the two-story stone dwelling, on plot 20 by 100, at 1,425 President Street, through M. C. O'Brien. The same broker sold the two-story store building on plot 20 by 100 at 1,126 Nostrand Avenue for the Land Estates Company.

George Schutt sold the three-family brick house at 1,682 Grove Street to Frederick Fausel through R. A. Schlesing. The same broker sold the four-family house at 488 Onderdonk Avenue for Dina Heinecke to Joseph Jordan; the six-family brick tenement at 321 Manahan Street for Peter Manthey to Ernest G. Muller, and the six-family tenement at 1,722 Himrod Street for John Klostermann to Anna Frohlich.

Pietro Cottone sold the one-family cottage, with garage, on plot 40 by 100, at 1,428 Fifty-eighth Street through B. J. Sforza.

Mary Fleck sold the two-family detached house at 1,269 Seventy-eighth Street to a client of Frank A. Seaver & Co., for occupancy. The same broker sold the one-family brick house at 2,045 Eighty-third Street for the Union Stove Works; the two-family brick house at 458 Seventy-seventh Street, Bay Ridge for A. Wassmer, and a lot, 25 by 100, on the south side of Ninety-sixth Street, 100 feet west of Marine Avenue, for L. Michelson.

Elizabeth Randall sold the two-story and basement two-family stone dwelling, on lot 20 by 100, at 925 Lincoln Place, and Mary T. Eaton sold the semi-detached two-story and cellar two-family stone dwelling, on lot 24 by 127, at 1,143 Carroll Street. Both sales were negotiated by M. C. O'Brien.

Meister Builders, Inc. sold the two-family cottage at 72 Fifteenth Street, to a Mr. Hensen; the two-story one-family house at 1,674 Eighty-third Street, and the two and one-half story two-family brick dwelling, on lot 20 by 100, at 963 Sixtieth Street.

Queens Borough Sales.

The G. X. Mathews Company sold a six-family flat, on plot 27 by 100, at 64 Eighteenth Avenue, Long Island City, to Charles K. Lands.

August Schreiner sold a six-family flat at 2,006 Woodbine Avenue, Ridgewood, to William Schenck and Andrew Stoessel through Nestler's Agency.

H. A. Bigbee sold to the Midwood Building Corporation the southwest corner of Pierce and Eighth Avenues, Long Island City, through the Cross & Brown Company.

Westchester County.

The John T. Brook Company sold a new stucco residence on Loring Avenue, Pelham Heights, held at $18,000, to Walter Bowne, 2d, through Fish & Marvin. The same company, through the same brokers, sold a residence on Pelhamdale Avenue, Pelham Heights, held at $16,500, to Albert B. Baker.

Hugh I. Young sold a plot of land in Murray Hill, Scarsdale, to James S. Alexander, who plans to erect a $25,000 residence on the site. Griffen, Prince & Ripley negotiated the sale.

Margaret L. O'Donnell sold her residence in Crestwood to Earl Easton Williams through George Howe. The same broker sold for the Larchmont Gardens Company, to George Gehlert a lot at Larchmont Gardens.

Oliver M. Oake sold the property, now in course of construction, held at $25,000, at the corner of Dellwood and Pondfield Roads, Cedar Knolls, Bronxville, to J. H. Fadden through Fish & Marvin.

The Westchester Syndicate sold a house on Chase Street, in the Battle Hill section of White Plains, to Douglas Stuart through the Robert E. Farley Organization.

The Cooley Realty Company sold the property on South Fifth Avenue, Mount Vernon, consisting of a house and garage on plot 110 feet frontage, for William L. Meffert, to Clifford Smythe.

New Jersey.

Edmund C. and John Gardiner, as trustees, sold for the Gardiner estate the plot on the south side of Elliott Place, East Orange, with a frontage of 880 feet and an area of over 200,000 square feet, 500 feet from Harrison Street and the Orange Park, to William L. Goetz. The plot will be divided into lots, with frontages of 50 and 75 feet, and modern one-family dwellings to cost from $7,000 to $14,000 will be erected on them. Louis Schlesinger, Inc., negotiated the sale.

George P. Coles sold the one-family brick residence at 249 Broad Street, Newark, to Vincenzo Siano through Feist & Feist.

Robert Harris bought the one-family dwelling on plot 50 by 100 at 47 Weequahic Avenue, Newark, from Frank J. Bock through Louis Schlesinger, Inc.

Commercial Leases.

Nedick's Orange Juice Company leased from Joseph Leblang for a long term of years part of the store at 1,482 Broadway, near Forty-third Street, at the entrance of the Cohan Theatre, at a rental of $100 a square foot. They have also leased from the United Cigar Stores Realty Company the entire store at the northwest corner of Broadway and Fifty-first Street and the northeast corner of Broadway and Forty-seventh Street, adjoining the entrance to the Columbia Theatre.

Offer's Restaurant Company, Inc., leased the entire building at 645 Sixth Avenue, together with the store and basement at 102 and 104 West Thirty-eighth Street, forming an "L" around the southeast corner of Sixth Avenue and Thirty-eighth Street, for a long term of years at an aggregate rental of about $150,000. Sol Stern negotiated the deal.

The Gerry Estate leased to the Sar Realty Company the premises at 8 and 10 East Forty-eighth Street. The building will be altered into small suites and stores. The Cruikshank Company negotiated the transaction and the lessees were represented by Olcott, Bonynge, McManus & Ernst and Jonas & Neuberger.

SECRETARY OF LABOR WILSON ASKS CAPITALISTS TO AID HOUSING DEMAND

Home Building Hits Bolshevism—Federal Loan Banks Suggested as a Remedy to Supply the Nation-Wide Shortage of One-Million Homes—New York City Facing Crisis

Secretary of Labor Wilson in a statement issued at Washington last Friday urged that large business interests and private capital give every possible assistance to meet the unprecedented demand for housing not only in Greater New York but throughout the country. "Home building is one of the best antidotes for checking the spread of Bolshevism and industrial unrest," Mr. Wilson declared.

"In view of the nation-wide shortage of 1,000,000 homes, cities and large business interests should give every assistance to plans for building new homes. Not only will this provide much buffer employment at a time when it is sorely needed, but it will put up a great barrier to the efforts of the radical agitators.

"I have found that the man who owns his home is the least susceptible to the so-called Bolshevist doctrines and is about the last man to join in the industrial disturbances fomented by the radical agitators," Wilson said. "Owning a home gives a man an added sense of responsibility to the national and local government that makes for the best type of citizenship."

Wants Home Loan Banks.

Wilson believes that real assistance will be granted home builders if the next Congress passes the bill proposed by the Labor Department establishing home loan banks, through which loans can be made to prospective home builders.

All dwelling plans of the United States Housing Corporation have been turned over for public use, and the Secretary urges that big interests adopt the housing corporation's principles as a means of solving the labor problem. Providing of modern homes for labor by large corporations is the best kind of an investment, he believes.

These houses can be bought by the workingmen on the installment plan, as is being planned by an Elizabeth, N. J., company which has purchased a large tract of land to erect houses that will be sold to employes at cost on the monthly payment basis.

Houses Needed Everywhere.

Incomplete detailed reports of the Department of Labor show that the demand for houses is general. Among the shortages reported are the following cities, the figures representing the number of families that need accommodations, according to estimates of Government and city officials and real estate boards:

Massachusetts—Fall River, 1,050; Lawrence, 300; Pittsfield, 150; Salem, 250.

New York—New York City, 75,000; Albany, 900; Mount Vernon, 200; Niagara Falls, 200; Syracuse, 800; Utica and Yonkers, 800 each.

Pennsylvania—Allentown, 700; Easton, 150; Hazleton, 300; Philadelphia, 30,000; Reading, 500; Scranton, 400; Pittsburgh, 8,000.

Connecticut—New Haven, 1,500.

New Jersey—East Orange, 200; Orange, 100; Paterson, 400.

Middle West Figures.

Ohio—Alliance, 300; Columbus, 1,500; Dayton, 500; Warren, 1,500.

Indiana—Elkhart, 250; Fort Wayne, 700; South Bend, 1,200.

Illinois—Chicago, 12,000; Aurora, 200.

Michigan—Detroit, 30,000; Port Huron, 400.

Wisconsin—Milwaukee, 2,000.

Minnesota—Duluth, 400; Minneapolis, 5,000; St. Paul, 3,000.

Iowa—Cedar Rapids, 500.

Kansas City, 2,000; Dallas, Texas, 400; Baltimore, 2,500; Huntington, W. Va., 500; Denver, 300; Seattle, 3,000; Portland, Ore., 5,000; San Francisco, 1,500; Pasadena, 500.

During an address before the American Institute of Architects, New York Chapter, last week, T. S. Holden, investigator of the United States Department of Labor, said: "After a somewhat extended study of prices, it is the opinion of the Division of Public Works and Construction Development that a new price level has been established by economic conditions attending the world war, and that economic forces appear to have already acted to stabilize prices at a level below which they are not likely to fall by any appreciable amount in the near future.

"It is believed that the growing confidence in the future of business in this country, evidence of which is seen on all sides, is well justified by the facts that have been learned through the study of the price situation.

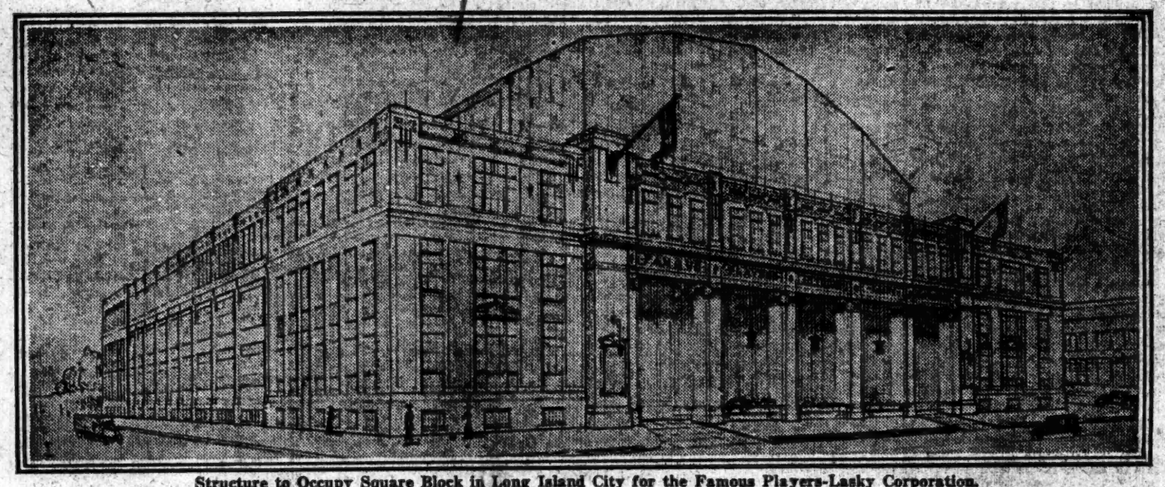
"Evidence of the stability of business today is the fact that during a five months' period of stagnation the number of business failures has been unusually low.

"At the present time there is less concern over high prices than there is with regard to the stability of prices. It appears that the wisest business men are those who decide now to go ahead with the construction of buildings and the production of goods; the need for both forms of activity is more imperative now than ever before."

Rental Investigators.

State, city, and civic committees are at work on the rental problem developed by the serious shortage of housing. The Housing Committee of the Governor's Reconstruction Commission and the Mayor's Committee on Taxation have placed their machinery in operation to modify the problem, and last week the Legislature appointed four Senators and five Assemblymen, appropriating $5,000 to make a thorough investigation to ascertain facts regarding rentals and to determine whether there is a basis for the charges of rent profiteering.

NEW MILLION-DOLLAR MOVING-PICTURE STUDIO



Structure to Occupy Square Block in Long Island City for the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation.

The Famous Players-Lasky Corporation have assembled through the Cross & Brown Company a large plot of ground in Long Island City comprising an entire square block, bounded by Sixth, Seventh, Pierce, and Graham Avenues, and the block front on the north side of Pierce Avenue from Fifth to Sixth Avenue, involving all told over 140,000 square feet of ground area.

The purchasers will immediately erect a studio and laboratory of the most modern type, containing every facility known for the making of the high-class motion picture productions for which the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation is noted.

The square block will be covered with the latest type of glass-inclosed studio, as well as open-air stages. The studio building will be strictly fireproof of reinforced concrete construction.

Large scene docks equipped with modern machinery will be installed to handle all scenes and sets mechanically. Light and airy scenario department, casting department, modeling departments, wardrobe rooms, property rooms, &c., will be installed.

Among the notable features will be a completely equipped modern theatre for the demonstration and showing of films to executives and artists, a complete and up-to-date restaurant for the exclusive use of artists and employes, a refrigerating plant, locker rooms, Turkish baths, green rooms, club rooms, gymnasium, &c.

The studio building will be equipped with the modern sprinkler system, and elevators will be provided for the quick and easy handling of all scenes and properties. The roof of the studio will be so constructed as to provide floods of natural daylight so as to make it possible to take scenes practically from sunrise to sunset without artificial light.

On the block front adjoining there will be erected a three-story building to be devoted exclusively to laboratory purposes. This building will also be fireproof and modern in every respect and will contain every known contrivance for the proper developing of films.

The entire designing, planning, and construction of these buildings will be in charge of the Fleischmann Construction Company of New York. This group of buildings and open stages will cost, as estimated, about $2,000,000.

BIG DEMAND FOR FACTORIES

With its 2,250 factories all going full blast or making extensive preparations for the expected after-war activity, the Bronx now faces a demand for buildings for manufacturing purposes which, if it could be supplied at once, would probably more than double the output of manufacturing in this borough within the next year.

On file at the Bronx Board of Trade and at offices of real estate men and builders in the Bronx are applications for millions of square feet of manufacturing floor space.

More than 1,000,000 feet of space will be required to fill the applications on hand at the Board of Trade alone.

Just what this tremendous demand for factory buildings means may be judged best by a few samples of the manufacturing institutions that are seeking a chance to establish themselves where the "labor market" is regarded as the most satisfactory in the metropolitan district.

Here are some of them:

A silk mill now at Paterson, N. J., operating 800 looms wants a four-story building at least 60 by 200 feet, wherein they will install 1,500 looms.

A corrugated paper products company wants 60,000 square feet of space.

Aside from these, there is a demand for 3,000 square feet for a steel castings plant; 5,000 square feet for a shirt waist factory; 10,000 square feet for a corset factory; a maker of electric furnaces wants 7,500 feet; a woodworking plant needs 25,000 feet; a warehouseman asks for 25,000 square feet; a firm at Arlington, N. J., wants 12,000 feet of space on a two-year lease, with renewal or purchase privilege; 5,000 feet is wanted for light manufacturing, and "many others.

According to officials of the Board of Trade and real estate men, practically every foot of loft suitable for any kind of manufacturing is taken, and owners of manufacturing sites are being besieged by brokers and others who desire to have such buildings erected.

Some concerns of large capacity now in leased buildings elsewhere are planning the construction of buildings of their own in the Bronx.

One of the principal concerns of this kind is the Ernest & Herman Levy Company, known as the E. & H. Silk Company, 229 Fourth avenue, who have plans completed for the erection of a five-story building on Purdy street, adjoining the plant of the Bronx Gas and Electric Company, near the Catholic Protectory.

It is said that this building will be completed before next Winter and when in operation will furnish employment for nearly 3,000 people.

The Peerless Dyeing and Bleaching Company, 359 East 155th street, will quadruple their business, when they shortly move into their new factory, which is being built for them by the Haffen Realty Company, at Garrison avenue and Burnett place.

Work on other factory buildings is contemplated soon in different sections, but real estate men say there is little tendency on the part of owners of favorable manufacturing sites to erect buildings for leasing to factories because of more favorable returns from other classes of buildings.

"The Industrial Bureau of the Board of Trade is using every argument in its power to persuade builders to put up buildings for factory purposes," said Secretary Charles E. Reid of the Board of Trade.

"If the Bronx does not build these buildings to meet this demand at once, similar buildings will be soon ready to supply the demand in the manufacturing districts of New Jersey and in Queens, Kings, and other boroughs.

"If we do not stir ourselves the others will beat us to it and get the cream of these factories away from us.

"During the period of the war there was a sort of a process of curtailment, absorption and consolidation which, because of war conditions, limited the opening of new industrial plants to such as supplied some war necessity.

"Now comes the reconstruction period of expansion and the increased demand for manufacturing property here is the logical result.

"During the two years from 1915 to 1917 the Board of Trade brought here 119 new factories. Last year saw practically no new industries established here, and of course no building.

"Already the demand for lofts had taken up every inch of available space that was vacant, and the demand still grows.

"People who own property that would be suitable for sites for manufacturing seem to be averse to building, while others who have residence sites seem anxious to build. The returns on residence property are better, considering the requirements of the Board of Underwriters, which are so strict that the factory building investment becomes greater in proportion to the returns than in other classes of buildings."

Asked as to the reasons for the increased demand for factory buildings in the Bronx, Mr. Reid said:

"Conditions are more favorable here for production than in almost any other manufacturing district near New York. The labor supply is almost inexhaustible. Streets are wide and well paved, making local hauling conditions ideal, rail and water facilities are almost perfect. These things make the ideal manufacturing location."

It is estimated by the Board of Trade that there are now more than 74,000 workers in factories in the Bronx and that the annual payroll this year will exceed $81,000,000. This will be nearly double the factory payroll here in 1917, which was estimated at $45,000,000.

TAX VALUES TO INCREASE.

Experts Predict Large Advance In City's Total.

Experts interpret the recent general and sharp increase in real estate rentals and sales as a forerunner of an increased assessed valuation by the Department of Taxes and Assessments of from $200,000,000 to $300,000,000 for 1920, with a tax base, including personal property, of approximately $9,000,000,000.

Although the increase in valuation may be construed by owners and landlords as a penalty for raising rents, the Department of Taxes and Assessments maintains that the increase will be due to natural causes, following seven or eight years of comparative inactivity in real estate.

"The buoyancy of the real estate market, due to better earnings, warrants the prediction that the increase in assessed valuation of ordinary real estate will reach $200,000,000 in the greater city," said John J. Halleran, who served as Tax Commissioner on both the Gaynor and Mitchel boards.

"Until last year it looked as if New York City was about 20 per cent. overbuilt," he continued. "Owners were losing money every year. With the shut-down for the last four years in building due to the high cost of labor and building materials, the expected thing happened. Gradually the 'slack' was taken up, so today real estate is very active, owners and landlords are receiving increased rentals, and it is speaking within bounds to say that the city is underbuilt. This will result in building up the undeveloped sections of Brooklyn, Queens, and the Bronx.

"While I don't see just where it is coming from, still it looks as if the increase in assessed valuation for next year would reach at least $200,000,000. This is about what it should be in normal times, in view of the fact that the city increases in population about 200,000 a year. The high cost of building construction tends to depress rather than increase the market value of undeveloped lots, but as soon as the cost of materials and labor lets down a little, I look to see great activity in building all over the outlying sections, especially where the new subway lines have reached."

The Tax Commissioners a few days ago had all the deputy commissioners in conference, and the deputies all reported increased rentals. As a result it is understood assessed land values will be increased where there is proof, afforded by recent sales, that the raise is warranted, and also that the deputies will increase assessments on buildings, on the ground that they are earning handsomely and that they cannot be replaced for anything like the present valuations.

This is where the owners and landlords are likely to protest, as it is an unwritten law in the tax office that the assessed valuation of an old building cannot be raised. Probably the answer of the Assessors will be that the land assessment cannot well be raised owing to the cost of new construction, but that on account of the rentals the entire property is worth more, and that if the increased value cannot be reflected in the land it should go on the building.

Nineteen hundred and eleven was the last "big year" of increase in realty valuations. The Gaynor board increased assessed valuations for 1911 in the round sum of $800,000,000. This was practicable because valuations were on a basis of about 60 or 70 per cent., and Mayor Gaynor directed the board to assess realty according to law—at its true market value. Since then the annual increases have run all the way from $40,000,000 to $100,000,000 a year for ordinary real estate.

Terms of Sherry Lease.

Louis Sherry, under the lease renewal made last Fall, was to pay $218,000 a year in rent in addition to taxes for the property at the southwest corner of Fifth Avenue and Forty-fourth Street. Since Mr. Sherry has sold his lease to the Guaranty Trust Company, the terms will be assumed by the bankers. For the corner property, which is owned by Irving Brokaw and others, Mr. Sherry agreed to pay $190,000 a year for twenty-one years, dating from last September. The property adjoining on Fifth Avenue, which is owned by Josephine Brooks, is leased to Mr. Sherry from Oct. 1, 1918, for twenty-one years, with two renewals, the rentals for the current period being $23,000 a year net.

FEDERAL MORTGAGE BANK.

How Such an Institution Would Aid Home Building.

By FRANK R. HOWE,
Formerly Connected with the United States Housing Corporation at Washington, D. C.

With the Federal participation in the construction of workmen's homes during the war period coming to an end, and the housing shortage due to the practical stoppage of other than Federal building during the war time, it seems appropriate to consider means which might help to relieve the present housing shortage and put real estate upon a sound financial basis.

Any instrumentality which will lower the cost of money borrowed for the purpose of financing building construction will afford immense aid to the building industry; and if at the same time a means can be found which will create an annual fund out of the earnings from property to be re-invested in new buildings, real estate will be relieved of one of its greatest drawbacks—that of being not liquid—and a new life will be put into the vast sums already invested in mortgages upon real estate, which under the present system of loans practically remain dormant for years.

To many of those who were engaged in the Government war housing program it seems unwise for the Government to participate directly in the construction and ownership or the construction and sale of houses. There are numerous reasons why such a policy seems unwise, but there is not so much difference of opinion that the Federal financing of the construction of houses for home use would be a great aid not only to the builder, but to the home owner. If such Government financing takes the form of loans which are paid off by installments over a period of years, there is thereby created a reserve fund which can be re-invested in new construction year after year as the requirements may dictate.

The reason primarily for suggesting the Federal Government as the agency is to take advantage of the great credit which it enjoys and thereby reduce the cost of loans to the minimum. If the several States were the agency the saving on this account would not be so great.

The three essentials required by all mankind are food, clothes and shelter. The Federal Government through the Farm Loan banks is financing the production of food—through the Federal Reserve Banks the production of clothes—and it remains for a Federal Mortgage Bank to finance the production of houses.

The Crédit Foncier of France is one great example of the quasi Government Land Bank and has for many years financed mortgage loans on real estate and also to municipalities at lower rates than are obtainable upon railroad mortgages.

The method pursued is comparatively a simple one. The bonds of this institution, which are freely negotiable on the exchanges, are offered to the public at a low rate of interest and are readily taken up in ordinary times. The proceeds of the loans are again loaned to individuals on the security of real estate, the borrowers being compelled to pay a slightly higher rate than the institution pays to the public on its securities. A sum is earned thereby which is a substantial return upon the capital invested.

The Federal Farm Loan act of July 17, 1916, established a board at Washington and authorized the formation of twelve land banks controlled by the board, who were authorized to loan to associations of farmers on a basis of 50 per cent. of the value of the land and 20 per cent. of the value of the improvements thereon; the land banks all to offer their securities to the public, and the farmers are to repay the loan over a period of years at an interest rate about 1 per cent. in excess of the rate paid by the bank on its loans.

Under the same act the formation of joint stock land banks was authorized under the same restriction as the Federal Land Bank. These were permitted to issue bonds to the extent of fifteen times their capital and surplus, and are not allowed to charge a rate of interest exceeding by more than 1 per cent. the rate of interest paid by them on their last issue of bonds. Several such joint stock land banks have been formed under the provisions of the act and in spite of the wartime conditions a large volume of farm loan securities have been offered and sold to the public.

It would seem, therefore, that a Federal Mortgage Bank should follow the principles laid down by these two institutions either by the formation of a central bank with branches or of a central board with branch banks; should make loans directly to the public; should rediscount the mortgages held by savings banks in a manner similar to that followed now by the Federal Reserve Bank in respect of the national banks, and should loan to the building and loan associations, thereby enabling them to extend their operations.

One valuable feature of the Farm Loan act, the requirement on the part of each borrower to subscribe to 5 per cent. of the amount of his loan in stock of the association, which in turn subscribes for a similar amount in the land bank, might well be followed in the Federal Mortgage Bank, so that in the course of time the original capital subscribed by the public or by the Government might gradually be retired after a surplus is earned so that ultimately the entire stock of the Federal Mortgage Bank or banks would be owned by the borrowers from the institution, who would thereby effect whatever saving would be possible in the cost of their loans through the receipt of dividends.

It would, of course, not be policy for the Government to participate in loans to finance the erection of stores, office buildings, churches, theatres, or manufacturing establishments, but it should confine its loans to the construction of homes, multi-family dwellings as well as single houses. The loans should not be confined to the working classes alone, but to all citizens.

It is not expected that the Government will ultimately by following such a plan make all the loans which are made on real estate any more than the Government policy in this regard in Europe has resulted in the Government financing the entire building construction of the various countries concerned, but by offering money at lower rates of interest the Government will prevent the extortion of undue interest or fees from borrowers in the same manner that it is now helping to reform the financing of farm mortgages, and as the Crédit Foncier did many years ago in France, for both farm and urban loans. By insisting upon good construction, proper room sizes, proper provisions for light and air in buildings upon which the Government will make loans, it can be of inestimable benefit in establishing new and finer standards for buildings.

Properly secured mortgages upon real estate constitute the premier investment in the world, but the dread of being "tied up" has kept great numbers of people from putting money into investments of this character, with the result that freely negotiable securities upon the exchanges are usually capitalized at a very much lower rate than mortgages upon real estate. By Government financing and the issuance of bonds similar in character to the Farm Loan Bonds an immense new field of investment and saving is at once opened up to finance building.

The establishment of a Federal Mortgage Bank would mean to the real estate and building world as great a step forward as the establishment of the Federal Reserve Bank has been to the banking and general business world. It is a step from antiquated, expensive and unsound methods to one in keeping with the spirit of the times, of co-operation to reduce expense and to promote production for the welfare of all concerned.

Davenport Tax Bill.

The introduction by Senator Davenport, Tuesday night, of a bill providing that the tax on real property in cities of the first class shall not exceed 68 per cent. of the amount to be raised by taxation, shows the value of the work done by the Real Estate Board of New York and its allies at this session of the Legislature.

The Committee on Taxation of the Legislature and its advisers were from the start opposed to limiting the tax on real estate; a few of the taxpayers' organizations were against it and the State Conference of Mayors was against it.

To persuade the various interests that they were wrong has been the work of the Real Estate Board, and in this the board was successful.

If the Davenport measure becomes a law the tax rate on real property in the city of New York in 1921 will not exceed 1.70.

If the act was a law now, the tax rate this year in Manhattan would be 1.60 instead of 2.32, a saving of seventy-two points, or about $60,000,000 to real property owners.

NEW FIGHT AGAINST 5TH AV. APARTMENTS

Committee Meets Tomorrow to Plan for Active Campaign.

WANT 75-FOOT HEIGHT LIMIT

Association Seeks to Retain Aesthetic Beauty of $90,000,000 Strip.

The Fifth Avenue Association's special committee, which was selected last Thursday to inaugurate a new fight against the encroachment of tall apartment houses in the residential section of Fifth Avenue, will hold a meeting tomorrow to plan an active campaign toward this end. The association hopes to enlist public support in the campaign, the object of which is to restrict buildings along the avenue, from Fifty-ninth to Ninetieth Street, to a height of seventy-five feet. If this is not done, according to the members of the committee, the architectural beauty of upper Fifth Avenue will soon be lost forever.

Michael Dreicer, who is President of Dreicer & Co., and Chairman of the special committee, said yesterday that he felt that Fifth Avenue belonged not only to the people who lived in houses facing it, but to all of New York, and that he felt that the entire city should take pride in the avenue and insist that its beauty be retained. In addition to this phase of the question, however, he said that property values along the avenue are radically affected by the advent of tall apartments. Lawson Purdy, Chairman of the Tenement House Committee and former Vice Chairman of the Zoning Commission, who is acting as an adviser to the special committee, also discussed this feature of the case.

"From Sixtieth to Ninety-fifth Street the land is valued at from $4,000 to $8,000 per front foot, exclusive of corners," Mr. Purdy said. He said there was very little of it that could be bought for the lower figure, and a good deal that was held higher than $8,000, and added:

"This strip of land, one and three-quarters of a mile long and about 100 feet deep, is worth about $50,000,000. The improvements on it represent at least another $40,000,000 that has been invested in this narrow strip. As a matter of public spirit it makes me sick at heart to see great tenement houses topped by ugly water tanks going up on this, the only show street in New York City, and the one street that people come from all over America to view.

"The block between Eighty-seventh and Eighty-eighth Streets is a fair sample. The magnificent home built by Mr. Phipps is there, and next to it a tenement has been built with a positively nude building front—indecent exposure to the south, east, and north. In more civilized cities this would not be permitted. The aesthetic effect of the adjoining house is ruined.

"Judge Elbert H. Gary recently bought the ground next to his Fifth Avenue house to keep an apartment from being erected there. At the corner of Seventy-eighth Street, opposite the J. B. Duke mansion, and adjoining Jacob L. Schiff's house, a twelve-story apartment is contemplated. It would be about 150 feet high. Mr. Drake's house is now valued at $2,500,000; I dare say such a building opposite would cut down its salable value a million dollars."

Mr. Dreicer cited the case of an apartment house built at Eighty-first Street and Fifth Avenue. The house next door, with a 25-foot frontage, was valued at $350,000, he said, and it sold last year for $125,000. This apartment is opposite the Metropolitan Museum. W. E. S. Griswold, another member of the committee, said that the magnificent architectural effect of the Museum would be seriously impaired if tall apartments were to be built facing and overshadowing it.

"We should follow the example of Boston," he said, "and Paris, which takes it as a matter of course that the vicinity of the Arc de Triomph should be protected from unsightly building, and even of Baltimore, which has long protected Mount Vernon Place, in which the monument to Washington is situated, and we should take steps now, for soon it will be too late to protect the beauty of Fifth Avenue."

Mr. Dreicer said that the presence of an unsightly apartment adjacent to a house that was for sale prevented a wealthy man who had contemplated moving here from another city to live from buying the residence.

The association has received a joint letter from a number of persons owning residences in the vicinity protesting against the erection of an apartment on the southeast corner of Sixty-sixth Street and Fifth Avenue, where it is planned to erect a new one. Among those who protested were Charles Scribner, Harris Fahnestock, and William Jay Schieffelin.

Old Landmark Leased.

The Willoughby Block, the oldest business building in Brooklyn, at the triangle bounded by Fulton, Willoughby, and Pearl Streets, has been taken by the United Cigar Stores Company under a long lease from the Willoughby estate. With the termination of the leasehold on the corner store at the apex of the triangle, held by the Mallan family, florists, since 1857, the old landmark will be torn down to make way for a modern structure.

The terms of the lease or the figures involved were not divulged today, but it was intimated by the contracting parties that they establish a new and higher mark in real estate values in the downtown section of the shopping thoroughfare, and indicate a returning confidence in the stability of the older part of Fulton Street, as a business centre. The property is assessed by the city for the purposes of taxation at $345,000. In 1856, it was said today, the property could have been purchased for $55,000.

Association to Meet.

The Executive Committee of the Real Estate Owners' Protective Association will hold a meeting at the Hotel Majestic Monday evening, April 21, to discuss the steps to be taken against real estate owners and landlords who are practicing profiteering on tenants. John H. Scheier, the association's architect, will report on the work done in Albany in behalf of real estate owners in the way of aiding and fighting legislation.
